If your beneficiary dies first, what will happen to your life insurance benefits?

When the unexpected happens, as it sometimes does, it's important to know what steps to take. That's why the competent advice of your Manufacturers Life representative is so valuable. Here are some of the practical points he'll cover.

1. Unless you originally named an alternative or contingent beneficiary, the money from your policy would be payable to your estate. This may tie up the money and subject it to creditors etc. and unnecessary estate costs. In the end, it might not even go to the person you would have chosen unless your will is up to date.
2. If young children were also originally named as beneficiaries, and they are still under age, another policy arises. Unless you make special provision, the money proceeds at your death would have to be paid into court and held until they reach their majority. But don't wait until something like this happens. Call your Manufacturers Life representative to-day. He will review your beneficiary arrangements—and suggest changes if they are necessary. He is experienced in matters of this kind, and he offers you the kind of counsel you can rely on.

MANUFACTURERS LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

Farmers' Union of Alberta

All Canadians, not just westerners, face the threat of substantial economic loss from the West Coast Grain Handlers' Strike, which begins at the Wheat Pool Terminal Elevator in Vancouver today.

A statement issued this afternoon by Paul Babey, F. U. A. President, without condemning either side in the dispute, points out the likely consequences of the strike action.

If the strike spreads to other grain companies, or for very long continues to tie up one-third of the Port of Vancouver's loading facilities, it will undoubtedly adversely affect shipment of our latest wheat sale to China. If this happens, Canadian wheat shippers will have an extra handicap in future negotiations, a bad reputation for delays in delivery. To the long term, such a reputation could prove very expensive. This would hurt a grain handler just as much as farmer.

Sharp and MacEachern were informed of the location of the F. U. President. On the spot findings by Mr. Babey and Mr. Addington will be sent immediately to the Ministers.

Cocom is growing that the strike by grain handlers at the Alberta Wheat Pool Vancouver Terminal Elevator can get, because of the balance of payment position, it is terribly unfortunate that a strike of this nature should be felt necessary. Prompt and responsible settlement of the latest involved case must be expected.

The loss elevator company to be struck by, Alberta Wheat Pool, is owned and controlled by Alberta farmers. These are the very people caught with undelivered grain and who will be most directly hit by the effects of this strike with no money to make, their bargaining in good faith, because the grain handlers are so vitally concerned, a long drawn out dispute is inevitable. The Farmers' Union of Alberta join with those calling for quick settlement of this case.

It was announced today that F. U. A. President Babey and Roy Addington, President of both the Saskatchewan Farmers Union and the National Farmers Union will arrive in Vancouver tomorrow morning to look at the grain handlers' strike situation.

Telegrams sent to Hon. M. L. Martland, Minister of Trade and Commerce, and to Hon. A. I. MacEachern, Minister of Labour express serious concern felt by grain farmers over the effects of the strike on the grain ports. A long drawn out dispute was termed "unthinkable".

Telegrams were sent from both the F. U. A. and the S. F. U. office today. The Ministers were requested to take immediate action, using all necessary means at their disposal to bring about quick settlement.

There is no better market for surplus Canadian food production than 700 million mouths in China. We are making the boat and it is high time our trade people in both government and business realized it.

Alberta Safety Council For the second straight month, reports the Alberta Safety Council in its monthly Traffic Accident Summary, Alberta drivers have had the unusually high number of motor vehicle death statistics from June 1 to June 30.

To the end of April 82 persons had been killed on our province's highways, exactly the same number as a year ago. Twenty-two deaths were recorded during April, a decrease from April, 1964.

Injuries are running 4 per cent below last year, so far. As of April 30, 1,077 persons had been injured in motor vehicle accidents, with 810 injuries occurring in the four months.

Accidents, meanwhile, continued to rise. An 8 per cent increase has been shown in the first four months of the year. 11,898 collisions compared to 9, 888 in 1964. However, of lack of supplies. The report came from Canada's Commercial Secretary in Canberra.

Members of the F. U. A. China Tour last fall acted emphatically on their return that if Canada did not take steps to improve diplomatic and trade relationships with the People's Republic of China, and to make some attempt to balance our trade with her, this potential market would be lost.

It now appears that Canada sells wheat only when others cannot supply it. Australia has done much more to balance its trade with China than Canada has. This effort would seem to be paying off for them.

The work of Mr. McCallum and Mr. Ferraris on the Marketing Council will be in addition to their regular duties.

In 1,077 collisions compared to 9, 888 in 1964. However, between the months of March and April this year the total accident rate has dropped by 4 per cent. During April, 2, 315 accidents were reported.

April saw R.C.M.P. report 15 fatalities, 48 minor injuries with Calgary and Edmonton each taking 10 or 62.5 per cent of the total fatalities had liquor involvement.

Three hundred and twenty-nine injuries were recorded by R.C.M.P. during the month. Edmonton reported 140, other centres 189. Other centres had 211 fatalities, 14 and Grande Prairie 2.

Edmonton City Police investigated almost as many accidents in April as R.C.M.P. and Calgary Police combined. Edmontonians were involved committees for amendments to the Marketing of Agricultural Products Act.

Admission to the Act provides three alternatives to the present marketing methods: producer marketing boards, and two types of marketing commissions.

The committees also provide for the formation of the marketing council which will administer the Act, advise on, and supervise the operations of producer boards and marketing commissions.

Legislation provides for the Marketing Council to have from three to seven members. Mr. McCallum says five members will be appointed forthwith. The three, in addition to the chairman and the secretary, who will be appointed in about two weeks, will be the marketing council fully operative by July 1.

The Chapel Hour

RIGHTEOUSNESS AND ROTTENNESS

SCRIPTURE: Matthew 23:25-26
VERSE FOR THE DAY: Ye outwardly appear righteous unto men, but within ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity (Matthew 23:28)
HYMN FOR THE DAY: "Power to Thee"

WOULD it be humorous, or rather disgusting to see one who had applied meticulously her cosmetics but had failed to use soap or water before the application? There is irony and high scorn on the lips of the guiltless Jesus as He spoke the words which form the basis for this meditation. Our Lord's indictment is most personal for He speaks to the entire man. Few would disagree that it is good to appear properly dressed, as well as to know and practice the social graces.

However, what about dishonesty, self-indulgence, and moral unrestraint? Will the use of a detergent on the outside of a cup make it clean for contents on the inside? Will the washing of tombs with lime on the outside change the putrid stench of rotting flesh on the inside? Will building memorials atone for martyred prophets?

As God always knows our inner thoughts, Jesus asks for a better appearance than mere physical polish. The cleansed vessel, the repaired life point to the preciousness of the soul. Sin rots, but the Lord has planned that righteousness bring forth fruit for the Master.

PRAYER THOUGHTS: Dear righteous Father, we adore Thee because Thou hast removed our sin through the atonement. In thanksgiving, we acknowledge that Thou hast cleansed our hearts. We pray that we might be Thy instruments of righteousness and walk in the way of holiness.

BEWARE OF BEING DISQUALIFIED

SCRIPTURE: 1 Corinthians 9:12-27
VERSE FOR THE DAY: I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith (1 Timothy 4:7)
HYMN FOR THE DAY: "Fight the Good Fight"

PAUL was concerned not only about his own, but the salvation of others as well. Therefore, he practiced Christian forbearance. If the new of definite cases in which his eating certain food would tend to violate the dictates of conscience and thus stumble, he would not indulge so far there was any real danger of this. To alter his ministry he had said, "I have kept the faith."

He had even gone beyond this to sacrifice his freedom by conforming to the customs and idiosyncrasies of various regions of people in order to win more to Christ than he might otherwise have done. This was proper. Christians, like athletes, should exert discipline themselves that they may win the prize of eternal life. In fact, it was for this very reason that Paul himself exercised rigid self-control. Verses 26, 27 could be translated:

"I scrupulously so run, as not uncertainly; so I box as not thrashing the air, but I beat my body black and blue and I subject it to rigid discipline, lest possibly I who have preached to others might myself become disqualified."

PRAYER THOUGHTS: Our Father, may we recognize that our faith must first be self-sustained if we are to be accepted as Your holy presence. Therefore, laying aside every weight which tends to hinder us, may we run with patient endurance to the end, so that we may be found qualified to receive the crown of eternal life.

THE BIBLE TODAY

Choose a language spoken by about 500,000 people in North East Africa and in South West Africa, as well as in the large isolated groups in Central Africa, and South West Africa. There is, in all, a Christian community of over 100,000 speaking Chokwe.

Printed in both Portuguese and English on alternate pages, a special edition of Genesis to Ruth in the two languages, or diglot form, due to government restrictions.

There are over 800 churches and small groups of Christians to whom this new volume of the Scriptures will come as a long awaited treasure.

Under the New Testament, Psalms, Proverbs and two other books of the Old Testament have been available for some time. The balance of the Bible is now in the process of being completed. It was decided to print the new edition in a diglot form, as missionary personnel are required to withdraw from the area concerned.

Two other languages have the Bible published in the diglot form for Angola, Uganda and Lesotho were completed as whole Bibles within the last few years.

NEWS

It must give a person a queer feeling to read of his own death in the paper. Last week, between this reporter's report and the printing press, part of the news was omitted and it was regretted that Mr. Miller of Gainford had been taken away. It is definitely not. Emil is very much alive and feeling much better. It was Mrs. Bruner's son-in-law, Mr. Abel of Vancouver, who passed away so suddenly.

The Pembina District Council of the Boy Scouts met in Evansburg last week. Matters discussed were the Cub Rally the Scout Camporee, possible risks in insurance for Cubs and Scouts and other business.

if ever you find yourself stranded on top of a building, solid or shaky, and happen to have an injury to boot, call on the Pembina Valley Cadet Corps for rescue. The boys gave a very fine demonstration of lowering stretcher cases from the roof of the school last Friday when they held their annual inspection night for parents and visitors. They also demonstrated their knowledge and ability on the parade square and in gymnastics. The officers inspecting the corp. were Maj. T. Hutton, Capt. M. Stagg and Capt. J. B. Stanton. There are twenty-eight boys in the corp under the command of Capt. K. G. E. Wade of Evansburg.

The Wolf Cubs of the Penbina District, held their annual rally at Pembina Provincial Park on May 29. Cubs from Drayton Valley, Whitecourt, Sangudo, Mayerthorpe, Lodgepole, Cyrtulda and Evansburg took part in games and contests. Although the rain cut a few activities from the programme, it held off long enough for the boys to have a thoroughly enjoyable time. This was Evansburg group's first rally and something new for all the boys in the pack. The plaque for winning the most

SOMETHING ABOUT DRAPERIES
Choosing the correct draperies for your home is vital to the atmosphere you wish to create. But more practically, draperies must also be chosen for sunfastness, pliability and easy care. Thus, being a conscientious homemaker you, set out to find all the information you

Many. Somehow, however, it seems very difficult to find and when found, it is so highly technical that you are no further ahead. Since the world of man made fibers is so vast and growing more so, perhaps I can help to clarify a few facts by dwelling on the major fibers found.

Some characteristics:

Acetate -

A soft lustrous hand and good draping qualities are basic characteristics of acetates. In the pure state fibers have average sun fastness and durability, and fair to excellent resistance

4-H Club News

In June 4, the 4-H Garden Club held their meeting in the Recreation Office in the Town Hall. It was decided that they would hold a Sale on the next date June 5th, which turned out to be a success. The club was invited to have a booth at the 4-H Beef Club Calf Sale. Also the members decided to have a float in the Klondike Kampers parade.

Polyester
Polyester fibers are generally excellent for durability, crease retention, wrinkle resistance, and resistance to abrasion. Ease of care is considered excellent. The fiber is machine washable, is certain construction - always washable in others. Little ironing is required and they can be easily dried on hangers and worn in your gas dryer. They are simply strong. Resistance to sunlight is excellent when belting glass, but strength decreases after long exposure to sun. Also, they are 100% Polyester and have a percentage of Polyester blends can be permanently pleated. Names to identify are Dacron, Fortel, Kodol, Tergal, Dycel.

Rayon is soft, drapes well and is relatively inexpensive. These fibers have average resistance to fading but advance to excellent when using a solution dyed rayon. Wrinkle resistance is fair, crease retention is poor and durability is fair good. Within the rayon
